- (2) Age of the animals shall not be less than 1 year.
- (3) Own animals of the beneficiary should not be inducted under the subsidy part.
- (4) The animals should be apparently healthy and free from any diseases.
- (5) The animals should not have ear tag marks from previous tagging.
- (6) The animals must be purchased from shandais of states other than Puducherry Union Territory where the breedable goats are available abundantly at competitive price.
- (7) Animals must be certified fit by the Veterinary Assistant Surgeon before purchase.

K. Insurance coverage.— Insurance coverage shall be provided through master policy of any nationalised insurance company based on the valuation certificate given by the Veterinarian for all the five goats for 3 years. The animal purchased under this scheme shall be necessarily identified, insured based upon the Veterinarian's certificate and transported to the premises of the beneficiary.

L. Inspection after purchase and veterinary coverage.— The inspection of the goats will be made after purchase at periodical intervals by the member/members of the Selection Committee to ensure proper maintenance of the goats. The Veterinary Assistant Surgeon of the concerned Veterinary Dispensaries will be responsible for complete health coverage including the breeding aspect, insurance and claims.

M. Recovery/cancellation of subsidy.— Before distribution of the subsidy under this scheme, an undertaking shall be obtained from the beneficiary to the effect that she/he will not sell the goats for a period of 3 years and in case, if it is proved/found subsequently that the information furnished by her/him is false or if the goats are found to have been sold, the total cost of the goats is liable to be returned to Government or to be recovered from the beneficiary.

N. Interpretation and classification.— In the implementation of the scheme, if any doubt arises in regard to the interpretation of any of the provisions of the scheme or if any point requires clarification, the matter shall be referred to the Director of Animal Husbandry and Animal Welfare Department and the decision of the Director shall be the final.
